Chapel Credits

A furor has been recently stirred up over the question of chapel credits. The administration was faced with the problem of what to do with the over 400 students who did not use their twenty chapel credits. Close to 35 of these were guilty of the second offense, which under the rules of the college calls

The World is a beautiful place to be born into
if you don't mind a touch of hell now and then
just when everything is fine because even in heaven
they don't sing all the time
The world is a beautiful place
to be born into
if you don't mind people dying all the time
or maybe only starving
some of the time
which isn't half so bad if it isn't you
Oh the world is a beautiful place
to be born into
if you don't much mind
a few dead minds
in the higher places
or a bomb or two
in your upturned faces or such other improprieties as our Name Brand society is prey to
with its men of distinction and its men of extinction and its priests
and other patrolmen
and its various segregations and congressional investigations and other constipations that our foul flesh is heir to Yes the world is the best place of all for a lot of such things as making the fun scene and making the love scene and making the sad scene and singing low songs and having inspirations and walking around looking at everything
and smelling flowers
and perusing statues
and even thinking
and kissing people making babies and wearing pants and waving hats and dancing
and going swimming in rivers on picnics
in the middle of the summer and just generally
'living it up'
Yes
but then right in the middle of it comes the smiling
mortician

English Department authors eceive national recognition or scholarly achievements

Three members of the Hamp-Sydney English department are eving national recognition for r creative and scholarly writ- this year.

William Hoffman, author in residence and assistant professor of English, published his sixth novel, A WALK TO THE RIVER, with Doubleday and Company in August. A native of West Virginia, Hoffman is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College. With his wife and two daughters he lives in a pre-Civil War house in Charlotte Court House, where he raises horses and much of his family's food. His book is on sale in the College Shop.

Dr. T. Edward Crawley, Hurt Professor of English, will have his book, THE STRUCTURE OF LEAVES OF GRASS, published by the University of Texas Press in December. A scholarly analysis of Walt Whitman's masterpiece, the book has been chosen before publication for the Scholar's Library, a book club operated by and for members of the Modern Language Association. A native of Prospect, Va., Dr. Crawley is a Hampden-Sydney alumnus and did his graduate work at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He and Mrs. Crawley live at Hampden-Sydney. (Dr. Crawley is honored a second time this week. See story below – ed.)

Name one other hotel that looks this good.

Hotel Roanoke is a one-of-a-kind modern day version of an English Tudor Inn, located on a ten-acre park in the heart of downtown Roanoke.

From the minute you set foot on the grounds of the famous Hotel Roanoke you'll be in a whole new world of elegance and luxury. You'll find everything: gourmet foods in our Adam dining room, fun in the sun in our indoor/outdoor olympic pool. Take your pick of luxuriously-appointed guest rooms in colors to match your mood, your eyes or your pajamas.

Our hotel has been around since 1882. We know what quality means. And we deliver.

Vepco's first commercial atomic power station is now under construction in Surry County, Virginia. In the new Information Center overlooking the site, you will see an excellent slide presentation, fascinating exhibits, and a working model of the reactor. (And from the balcony, you can watch them assemble the real thing.) Open 10 AM to 4 PM Monday through Saturday and 1 PM to 6 PM on Sunday. For tour information call 771-3194 in Richmond.
